Realty of America Marks Second Anniversary with $8 Billion in Sales and 3,600+ Agents Nationwide

Built on an agent-owned model, the brokerage has generated more than $8.7 million in lifetime revenue share while expanding to 26 markets in two years

BERWYN, IL, UNITED STATES, September 17, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Realty of America recently marked its two-year anniversary, celebrating significant milestones in agent growth, sales volume, market expansion and revenue sharing. Founded on September 13, 2024, by four accomplished real estate leaders united by a vision to redefine the traditional brokerage model, Realty of America has grown to more than 3,600 agents across 26 markets and generated more than $8 billion in lifetime sales volume in just two years.

Since its launch, Realty of America has focused on creating a brokerage model designed around the success of its agents and teams. The company operates with zero corporate debt and no outside investors, allowing it to maintain alignment with its agents while investing in the technology, resources and support needed to help them grow.

"We started Realty of America with a clear vision: to build a brokerage where the agents and teams who drive the business are at the center of the business," said Eddie Garcia, CEO and Founder of Realty of America. "What we've seen over the past two years is that there is real demand for a different kind of brokerage model. The response from agents and leaders across the country has exceeded what we imagined, and what makes me most proud is that the people joining us believe in what we are building and want to be part of where it goes next."

In its first two years, Realty of America has recorded more than 24,000 transaction sides and generated more than $8.7 million in lifetime revenue share for its agents and leaders. Most recently, the company surpassed 1,000 agents in Illinois, marking a major milestone in its home state and underscoring the scale the brokerage has achieved since its launch in Chicago.

That momentum has been driven by experienced agents, teams and market leaders drawn to a model that combines technology, collaboration and revenue sharing with the tools and support to build their businesses. Over the past two years, the company has entered North and South Carolina, Florida, Georgia, Texas and Puerto Rico, among other markets, expanding well beyond its Illinois roots and building a national presence.

“Two years is an important milestone, but we view it as the beginning rather than the destination,” said Garcia. “We have built a strong foundation, and our next chapter is about taking that foundation to the next level. We are focused on continued national expansion, building toward an international presence, bringing exceptional people into the organization and creating an environment where agents can build businesses that are bigger, stronger and more valuable over the long term.”

To celebrate the milestone, Realty of America hosted its two-year anniversary celebration and leadership retreat at the Bellagio in Las Vegas on September 14.

With more than 3,600 agents, a rapidly expanding national footprint and an agent-first model built for scale, Realty of America enters its third year with strong momentum and a clear path for continued expansion.
