The Tribute Single Featuring Benjy Gaither Also Debuted at #3 on the iTunes Pop Chart

NASHVILLE, TN, UNITED STATES, September 17, 2026 / EINPresswire.com/ -- Award-winning recording artist Natasha Owens continues to make an impact with her powerful new tribute single, "We Miss You, Charlie," featuring Benjy Gaither. After debuting at #3 on the iTunes Pop Chart, the song lands this week at #25 on Billboard's Digital Song Sales chart, marking another milestone for an artist whose music has become a bold voice at the intersection of faith, freedom and American values.

Released September 4 through Real America's Music, "We Miss You, Charlie" honors the life and enduring legacy of Charlie Kirk while helping carry forward the causes he championed. One hundred percent of the project's net profits will be donated to Turning Point USA and Turning Point Action, supporting the next generation of student leaders and grassroots organizing.

"This song is our way of honoring Charlie's courage, his faith and the millions of people he inspired," says Owens. "We miss his voice, but the movement he helped build is still alive—and I hope this song reminds people that each of us can stand boldly for truth and carry that legacy forward."

The chart success adds to Owens' growing record of connecting with listeners around the world. Her music has generated more than 140 documented chart placements across 38 countries,
