Doll Amir & Eley Welcomes Litigation Attorney Daniella Cho

LOS ANGELES, CA, UNITED STATES, September 18, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Doll Amir & Eley LLP announced today that Daniella Cho has joined the firm as an Associate in its litigation practice. Cho represents clients in financial services and commercial litigation matters, bringing experience handling complex disputes in highly regulated industries.

Hunter Eley

Cho began her litigation career defending hospitals and physicians in healthcare professional liability matters, where she developed substantial experience managing cases from inception through resolution. Her practice has included drafting and arguing motions, conducting discovery, preparing for and taking depositions and developing litigation strategies designed to position matters for successful resolution.

“Daniella is a talented litigator whose experience, judgment and attention to detail will be tremendous assets to our clients,” said the firm’s Managing Parter Hunter Eley. “Her background handling sophisticated matters in the healthcare industry translates particularly well to the complex commercial and financial services disputes our firm handles. We are delighted to welcome her to the team.”

Cho earned her J.D. from The George Washington University Law School, where she served on the Law Review and received Pro Bono Honors. She earned her B.A., magna cum laude, from the University of California, Berkeley.

She is admitted to practice in California and before the U.S. District Courts for the Central and Southern Districts of California. Cho was also an Equal Justice America Fellow and is a member of Sigma Iota Rho, the National Honor Society for International & Area Studies.
