Sharp Things OKC Expands Knife Community With Blades and Bourbon and Online Storefront

The Oklahoma City knife and EDC retailer brings enthusiasts together in store while expanding the Sharp Things experience nationwide online.

OKLAHOMA CITY, OK, UNITED STATES, September 18, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Sharp Things OKC, a specialty knife and everyday carry retailer serving Oklahoma City and customers nationwide, is continuing to build its local enthusiast community through Blades and Bourbon, an in store gathering created for people who share an interest in knives, collecting, craftsmanship, and everyday carry gear.

Blades and Bourbon gives local collectors, longtime enthusiasts, and people who are newer to the hobby an opportunity to spend time together outside of a traditional retail transaction. Guests can talk knives, compare different styles and materials, connect with other enthusiasts, and spend time with a team that works with knives and specialty gear every day.

The event reflects the same hands on philosophy behind the Sharp Things OKC retail store. Customers are encouraged to handle knives, compare models side by side, examine blade finishes and handle materials, ask questions, and get a better understanding of how a piece actually feels before making a decision.

That experience is especially valuable in a category where specifications alone do not always tell the entire story. Blade geometry, action, ergonomics, weight, lockup, steel, materials, and intended use can make two seemingly similar knives feel very different once they are in hand.

Blades and Bourbon gives Sharp Things another way to extend that experience beyond the sales counter. Rather than simply coming in to browse and leave, attendees can spend time talking about new releases, favorite makers, collector pieces, everyday carry setups, and the broader knife culture that brought many of them into the hobby in the first place.

Because Sharp Things carries an evolving inventory, each gathering also gives attendees an opportunity to see different products as new arrivals, limited releases, pre owned pieces, customs, and other distinctive knives move through the store.

The Oklahoma City location carries folding knives, fixed blades, traditional knives, kitchen cutlery, high end production pieces, limited editions, customs, flashlights, everyday carry gear, accessories, and other specialty products. The store is designed to give both experienced collectors and first time quality knife buyers a place where they can browse without feeling rushed and ask questions without needing to arrive as an expert.

Sharp Things has also expanded that philosophy through SharpThings.com, its nationwide online storefront. The website gives customers outside Oklahoma City access to the company's growing inventory while providing detailed product specifications, photography, and descriptions intended to make online purchasing more informative.

Unlike an online only retailer, SharpThings.com is backed by the same physical Oklahoma City store where the team handles products, compares new models, follows releases, and works directly with customers. That connection allows Sharp Things to bring practical product knowledge from the showroom to shoppers across the country.

The company also places an emphasis on fast fulfillment. Orders received by 3 PM are generally shipped the same business day whenever possible, helping online customers receive new purchases without unnecessary delays.

Together, Blades and Bourbon and the expanded SharpThings.com storefront represent two sides of the same goal: creating a destination for knife enthusiasts whether they are walking into the Oklahoma City showroom or shopping from across the country.

Upcoming Blades and Bourbon details, new arrivals, and other Sharp Things updates are shared through SharpThings.com and the company's social media channels. The Sharp Things OKC store is located at 6610 N May Ave, Oklahoma City, OK 73116.

Blades and Bourbon started because we wanted to give the local knife community a reason to come together, talk shop, handle some great knives, and spend time with other people who enjoy the same things we do. SharpThings.com lets us take that same enthusiasm beyond Oklahoma City and give customers across the country access to the selection and knowledge behind our store.
