CableTV.com Launches 2026 'Thrillternship,' Paying Three Horror Fans $666 Each to Watch Scary Movies

Three lucky "Thrillterns" will rank horror's best characters and pocket a $50 UberEats snack stipend along the way.

CableTV.com 2026 Thrillternship

SALT LAKE CITY, UT, UNITED STATES, September 21, 2026 / EINPresswire.com/ -- CableTV.com is bringing back its Thrillternship for 2026, hiring three horror fans for one deliciously spooky task: binge a lineup of horror classics and modern favorites to help crown the genre's best characters.

No free scares here. Each of the three chosen "Thrillterns" walks away with $666 for putting their horror knowledge on the line, and their rankings, picks, and hot takes will be featured in an upcoming CableTV.com article.

"Our annual Bloodstream Thrillternship is a pretty sweet temp gig for horror fans. Be careful when you cash that check, though: You might be making a deal with an evil entity tied to that demonic three-digit number." — Randy Howard, Senior Staff Writer, CableTV.com

Here's what "Thrillterns" can expect:
- Three winners, $666 each for helping rank horror's best characters after watching a curated lineup of scary movies.
- A $50 UberEats gift card per winner to keep the snacks stocked through the marathon.
- Applications open now through October 11, 2026, with the application available on CableTV.com.
- Open to applicants 18 or older and legal US residents.

Not applying but still want in on the fun? Horror fans can find their own spooky alter ego with CableTV.com's online horror persona quiz.
