Nemera Technologies Secures ₹161 Crore Managed Services Contract in Thailand.

BANGKOK, THAILAND, September 19, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Nemera Technologies Co. Ltd., Thailand, a step-down subsidiary of MethodHub Software Limited, has secured a two-year Managed Services contract valued at approximately ₹161 crore.

The agreement covers the maintenance of telecom network infrastructure and further strengthens Nemera's presence in the Southeast Asian telecommunications services market.

The contract encompasses managed services for telecom network infrastructure maintenance and is scheduled to remain in force until July 2028. The engagement awarded by the client represents a significant milestone in Nemera's expanding global operations portfolio.

Commenting on the development, Dinesh Agaskar, CEO of Nemera Technologies, said:

"This contract reflects the confidence that global customers place in Nemera's managed services capabilities and our commitment to delivering reliable, high-quality telecom infrastructure support. We look forward to contributing
