GREATER BOSTON, MA, UNITED STATES, September 21, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Buyers Brokers Only announced that Dimitrios Makos returned in September 2026 as an exclusive buyer agent, bringing his real estate, legal, negotiation, and client advocacy experience back to the firm.

Makos, a licensed Massachusetts real estate broker and attorney, originally joined Buyers Brokers Only in 2018 and spent nearly five years representing homebuyers throughout Greater Boston and Eastern Massachusetts. He left the company in 2023 and later co-founded a real estate team that closed 62 transactions totaling more than $30 million in sales volume in 2024.

Makos' return to Buyers Brokers Only marks a return to a business model focused exclusively on representing homebuyers. Unlike traditional real estate brokerages that represent both buyers and sellers, Buyers Brokers Only does not represent sellers.

Makos' approach to buyer representation emphasizes evaluating properties and comparable sales, assessing value, structuring competitive offers, negotiating terms, identifying potential concerns, and helping buyers remain disciplined when making significant financial decisions.

“I believe homebuyers deserve an advocate whose job is to look carefully at the property, the numbers, the risks, and the terms of the transaction and give them straightforward advice,” Makos said. “My approach is consultative, not sales-driven. My role is to serve as an advisor who provides candid information, identifies potential risks, and helps buyers navigate the financial and practical considerations of purchasing a home.”

Makos has experience representing buyers purchasing single-family homes, condominiums, and multi-family properties. His clients have included first-time homebuyers, experienced homeowners, and real estate investors.

Makos added, “Returning to Buyers Brokers Only allows me to focus exclusively on representing buyers and helping them make well-informed decisions without the conflicts that can arise when a brokerage also represents sellers.”

Before focusing his career on residential real estate, Makos worked in the legal industry at several Boston organizations and law firms, including Ropes & Gray LLP, Fish & Richardson P.C., Foley Hoag LLP, Bove & Langa, P.C., and Boston Properties.

Makos earned his Juris Doctor from Suffolk University Law School and his Bachelor of Science in Criminal Justice, with a minor in political science, from Northeastern University. He was admitted to practice law in Massachusetts in 2014 and is a licensed Massachusetts real estate broker.

"Dimitrios brings a valuable combination of legal training and real estate experience to our team," said Rich Rosa, co-founder of Buyers Brokers Only. "His analytical approach to the real estate market and his dedication to consumer protection align perfectly with our mission to advocate for homebuyers throughout Greater Boston."

Makos is a member of the nonprofit National Association of Exclusive Buyer Agents (NAEBA), the Greater Boston Association of REALTORS®, the Massachusetts Association of REALTORS®, and the National Association of REALTORS®.

Makos helps homebuyers in Boston, Cambridge, and communities throughout the Boston area. His buyer representation includes helping clients understand the home-buying process, evaluate properties, analyze transaction details, negotiate offers and terms, and navigate issues from the beginning of a home search through closing.
