

IGI HOSTS SPECIAL GOLF SCHOOL PREVIEW FOR INFLUENCERS

Instant Golf Improvement hosts an exclusive influencer preview event on Sept 11, 2026, ahead of its November golf schools launch.

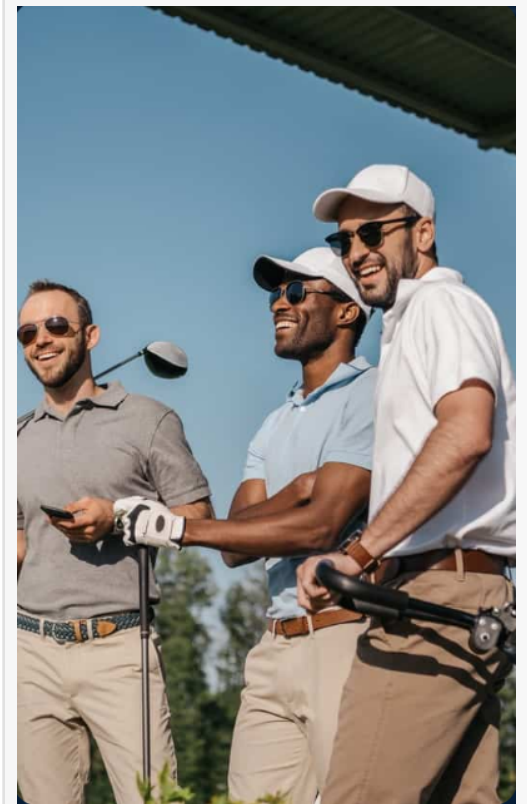

CHAMPIONSGATE, FL, UNITED STATES, September 21, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Beginning in fall 2026, Instant Golf Improvement will offer small-group golf schools designed to give students a solid foundation, help them master the basics, and achieve immediate gains they can carry into their play when they return home. The golf schools are based on the principles outlined in the book Instant Golf Improvement: The Six Pillars to Golf Success, published earlier this year by John Hughes.

To prepare for the launch of the golf school program, Instant Golf Improvement will host a special event for golf influencers, introducing them to the unique format, goals, and style of the golf school. By partnering with golf experts, John Hughes and the other coaches at Instant Golf Improvement hope to spread the word about the new golf school to the widest possible audience and let them know what to expect when they sign up.

The special event, scheduled for September 11, 2026, is by invitation only. Invited influencers will participate in a session that gives them an overview of what golf students will experience in the golf schools. The actual golf schools take place over two days, with 14 total hours of coaching and practice. During the overview, influencers will learn how the coaches introduce concepts, quickly help students build their skills, and provide take-away ideas students can easily remember and apply the next time they are on the course.

All influencers who participate in the September 11 event will meet PGA Hall of Fame coach John Hughes, receive a copy of Instant Golf Improvement: The Six Pillars to Golf Success, as well as other swag items, and get plenty of great photos and videos to share with their audiences.

John Hughes already produces a number of podcasts, video courses, and other online content on a regular basis, and partnering with other golf content creators is a logical way to let golf enthusiasts across the country know about the great opportunity the two-day golf schools offer. John Hughes and his team of experienced coaches look forward to meeting these influencers, giving them a taste of what Instant Golf Improvement is all about, and teaming up with them to publicize this unique new golf education offering.

Students interested in signing up for the two-day Instant Golf Improvement schools beginning in November 2026 can learn more at instantgolfimprovement.com. The site also includes pricing, schedule, format, answers to frequently asked questions, more information about John Hughes, and a contact form. Golfers can also buy the Instant Golf Improvement book on the website at a discount and start taking strokes off their game right away.
