NSW, AUSTRALIA, September 21, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Aussie Comedy Country Jazz Legend Ron E Buckpitt Returns with Infectious New Single "Tick The Box", because Sometimes You Just Gotta Tick It.

Sydney, Australia, 31st July 2026. In a move that has already sent shockwaves through the hallowed halls of pubs, backyard barbecues, and the occasional jazz club that accidentally booked him, celebrated Aussie comedy country jazz troubadour Ron E Buckpitt today proudly unveils his brand-new single "Tick The Box."

Fresh off the cultural phenomenon that was his classic anthem "Put It On Facebook" (the song that single-handedly convinced an entire generation of uncles that status updates were a legitimate form of emotional expression), Buckpitt has once again bottled pure Australian sunshine, a dash of swing, and a whole lot of cheek into three-and-a-half minutes of pure gold.

The Legend Ron E Buckpitt

"I was sitting there filling out one of those forms", Buckpitt explained from his secret songwriting bunker (a shed in the backyard with a broken fridge full of cold ones). "Name, address, next of kin... then I got to the little square that said 'Tick this box if you agree to everything forever.' And I thought, mate... that's life, isn't it? So I wrote a song about it. You're welcome.

Blending twangy country guitar, cheeky jazz piano runs, and lyrics that sound like they were scribbled on a beer coaster at 2 am, "Tick The Box" is pure Buckpitt: equal parts heartfelt, ridiculous, and dangerously catchy. Expect lines about bureaucracy, relationships, and the eternal Aussie struggle of deciding whether the box is worth ticking or whether you should just leave it blank and hope for the best.

Industry insiders are already calling it "the most important box-ticking anthem since the invention of the clipboard." Radio stations from Darwin to Hobart have reportedly cleared airtime, and several jazz festivals have issued polite but firm requests that Buckpitt not encourage audience members to actually tick boxes during performances.

"Tick The Box" is available now on all streaming platforms, bottle shops, and anywhere decent Aussie comedy country jazz is sold (or at least tolerated).For interviews, acoustic performances, or simply to watch Ron explain the philosophical implications of a checkbox over a cold one.
