MIAMI, FL, UNITED STATES, September 21, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Motiv8 Dance Movement is proud to announce its participation with Magic City's Dance World for the upcoming Miami's Ultimate Dance Convention, taking place October 10, 2026.

As part of this collaboration, Motiv8 Dance Movement coaches Amanda Muñoz-Lio and Donovyn Diaz will join the convention faculty as featured choreographers. Alyssa Wong, a member of the Motiv8 Dance Movement Elite Company, will also participate as a featured Dance Icon and faculty member.

They will join other Florida Top Choreographers like Leah Gonzalez, PK (Phillip Kendrick), Lourdes Albarellos and Alain Marquez for an educational dance experience designed to bring together dancers, teachers and studios from across the region.

The participation of three representatives from Motiv8 Dance Movement reflects the studio's growing presence within Florida's dance community and its commitment to creating opportunities that connect emerging dancers with professional instruction, creative collaboration and broader industry experiences.

"This collaboration represents an important opportunity to showcase the caliber of talent being developed within our studio," said Monique Tablada, Director of Motiv8 Dance Movement. "We are honored to be part of Magic City's Dance World, one of Miami's favorite and most highly regarded staple conventions in the dance industry. We are proud to have our MDM family represented on Magic City's Dance World's platform and excited for the opportunity to inspire, connect and contribute to the next generation of dancers alongside the other amazing faculty members.”

A FLORIDA PLATFORM FOR DANCE EDUCATION AND PERFORMANCE

Magic City’s Dance World produces dance conventions, regional competitions and national competitions designed for dancers, studios, teachers and families. Its programming combines professional organization with a welcoming, family-centered environment that encourages dancers to perform, learn and grow with confidence.

With events held in different Florida markets, Magic City’s Dance World provides participating studios and dancers with access to educational opportunities, competitive experiences and connections within the state’s dance community. Its calendar includes conventions and competitions in cities across Florida, culminating in national-level programming in Miami.

The organization emphasizes fair play, integrity and a positive experience for every dancer who takes the stage. Its competitions accommodate multiple performance formats, including solos, duets, trios, small groups, large groups and productions, with divisions structured around dancers’ ages and performance levels.

Through its conventions, Magic City’s Dance World brings dancers into direct contact with experienced choreographers who represent different styles, creative perspectives and areas of expertise. These events allow dancers to step beyond their regular studio environment, experience new approaches to movement and strengthen their adaptability as performers.

Miami’s Ultimate Dance Convention continues that mission by assembling a faculty of Florida choreographers for a concentrated day of dance education, movement and artistic exchange.

MOTIV8 COACHES BRING PROFESSIONAL INSTRUCTION TO THE CONVENTION

Amanda Muñoz-Lio and Donovyn Diaz bring their experience as coaches and choreographers at Motiv8 Dance Movement to the convention faculty.

Their participation extends Motiv8 Dance Movement's educational work beyond the studio and provides dancers from other programs with an opportunity to experience the technical knowledge, performance standards and creative energy that define Motiv8's approach to training.

For Motiv8 Dance Movement, the collaboration also creates an opportunity to contribute to the continued development of Florida's dance community. By participating alongside other respected professionals, MDM's coaches can exchange ideas, build relationships and support an environment in which dancers and educators learn from one another.

"We believe dancers grow when they are challenged by new experiences and exposed to different artistic voices," Tablada said. "Magic City's Dance World is creating a space where that exchange can happen in a professional, supportive and exciting environment."

ALYSSA WONG PARTICIPATES AS A FEATURED CHOREOGRAPHER

Alyssa Wong's inclusion as a featured choreographer represents a notable distinction for the young artist and for the Motiv8 Dance Movement Elite Company.

Wong trains and competes with MDM's Elite Company, where dancers receive advanced instruction and prepare for regional and national performance opportunities. Her participation in the Miami convention places her alongside experienced dance professionals in an instructional and creative role.

As a featured choreographer, Wong will have the opportunity to share her movement vocabulary, artistic perspective and performance experience with participating dancers. Her selection also reflects the value of providing emerging artists with meaningful opportunities to develop leadership, communicate their creative vision and contribute to the education of their peers.

"Being invited to participate as a featured choreographer is an incredible opportunity," said Wong. "I am excited to share my movement, connect with other dancers and contribute to an experience that celebrates creativity, confidence and growth."

A SHARED COMMITMENT TO DEVELOPING DANCERS

The collaboration between Motiv8 Dance Movement choreographers and Magic City's Dance World is grounded in a shared commitment to dance education, artistic development and positive performance experiences.

Both organizations recognize that dance training reaches beyond the mastery of steps and choreography. It helps young people develop discipline, resilience, confidence, responsibility, teamwork and the ability to express themselves through movement.

By bringing together established coaches, emerging choreographers and dancers from different studios, Magic City's Dance World's Miami's Ultimate Dance Convention will create an environment where participants can expand their skills while becoming part of a larger artistic community.

The convention will take place in Miami on October 10, 2026. Space is limited, and advance registration is encouraged. Additional event and registration information is available at https://magiccitysdanceworld.org.
