RALEIGH, NC, UNITED STATES, September 22, 2026 / EINPresswire.com/ -- Dr. Jeremy Pyle, board-certified plastic surgeon and founder & CEO of Amelia Aesthetics, has been named one of "America's Best Plastic Surgeons" by Newsweek for the fifth consecutive year. Dr. Pyle earned recognition in three procedure categories: Breast Augmentation, Tummy Tuck, and Liposuction.

Newsweek's America's Best Plastic Surgeons 2026 list, developed in partnership with Statista, recognizes 576 plastic surgeons nationwide across six cosmetic procedure categories: Breast Augmentation, Liposuction, Facelift, Rhinoplasty, Eyelid Surgery, and Tummy Tuck. This year's ranking honored 240 surgeons for breast augmentation, 235 for facelift, 235 for tummy tuck, 220 for liposuction, 215 for rhinoplasty, and 180 for eyelid surgery.

The ranking is based on a peer-driven survey of more than 10,000 medical professionals conducted by Statista in the spring of 2026, weighing in-state and out-of-state peer recommendations, quality of care factors such as patient outcomes and follow-up care, and board certification with the American Board of Plastic Surgery.

"Being recognized by Newsweek for a fifth year in a row means a great deal to me, but this honor really belongs to our exceptional team and to the patients who trust us with something so personal," said Dr. Pyle. "Whatever our patients are coming to us for, our goal is always the same: to help them feel like themselves again."
