The one-day giveback celebrates the spirit behind Nashville's newly announced Dolly Day, which honors Dolly Parton's legacy of music, generosity and kindness while encouraging people throughout the city—and beyond—to find their own ways to give back.

"Dolly's impact goes so far beyond music. Her commitment to children, literacy and her community is exactly the kind of generosity Dolly Day is meant to celebrate," said Melissa Ledbetter, vice president of e-commerce sales and marketing, Kuhn Rikon USA. "As a Nashville-based company, we wanted to join our city in celebrating in a way that felt both joyful and meaningful. And really, what could be more Dolly than a rainbow-colored kitchen tool doing a little good?"

Small but mighty, the COLORI® Pairing Knife is designed for everyday kitchen tasks including peeling, trimming and slicing fruits and vegetables, coring tomatoes, zesting citrus and deveining shellfish. Its ultra-sharp Japanese stainless steel blade features a food-safe nonstick coating to help ingredients release easily, while an ergonomic handle provides a comfortable grip. A matching sheath allows for safe storage and makes the knife easy to take along for picnics, camping and travel. The COLORI Pairing Knife is a bright, useful kitchen essential—and on Dolly Day, an easy way to turn an everyday purchase into something bigger.

Founded by Dolly Parton in 1995, Dolly Parton's Imagination Library provides free, high-quality books to children from birth to age five, regardless of family income. The program has grown from its beginnings in East Tennessee to reach children around the world.

On September 25, 2026, 100% of sales of the participating COLORI Pairing Knife purchased through https://kuhnrikon.com/us will be donated to Dolly Parton's Imagination Library.
