Caldwell Wenzel & Asthana Personal Injury Lawyers Announces Scholarship for Aspiring Legal Professionals

FOLEY, AL, UNITED STATES, September 22, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Caldwell Wenzel and Asthana Personal Injury Lawyers, a personal injury law firm serving communities across Alabama, Mississippi, and the Florida Panhandle, announced the launch of its scholarship program, beginning with the Tort Law Scholarship at the Thomas Goode Jones School of Law at Faulkner University in Montgomery, Alabama.

The $500 award is presented annually to the Faulkner Law student who earns the highest grade in Tort Law. The recipient is selected directly by the law school based on academic performance, and no application or essay is required.

“I know firsthand what scholarship support can mean to a law student because it helped make my own legal education possible,” said Dee Asthana, Managing Partner of Caldwell Wenzel & Asthana Personal Injury Lawyers. “It is incredibly meaningful to now be in a position to give that support back and recognize students who are working hard to build their own careers in the law.”

Tort law forms the foundation of the firm's personal injury practice, and the scholarship reflects a personal connection as well: one of the firm's founding partners paid for part of her own legal education through scholarship support, and the award is meant to extend that same kind of help to the next generation of legal professionals across Alabama, Mississippi, and the Florida Panhandle.

Caldwell Wenzel and Asthana Personal Injury Lawyers’ community involvement extends well beyond this scholarship. The firm regularly participates in local festivals, charity events, and neighborhood initiatives throughout the communities it serves, and maintains ongoing partnerships with area nonprofits, animal shelters, and chambers of commerce. This scholarship reflects the same commitment to local investment that guides the firm's broader community engagement.

A Scholarship Program the Firm Plans to Grow

The Tort Law Scholarship is the first in what Caldwell Wenzel and Asthana Personal Injury Lawyers intends to be an expanding program. The firm intends to welcome additional schools and universities into the program over time, spanning law schools as well as paralegal and pre-law tracks, and will list each new partnership and its eligibility requirements as those programs are announced.

For Schools Interested in Partnering

My school wants to partner with Caldwell Wenzel and Asthana Personal Injury Lawyers on a scholarship. Who do we talk to?

Caldwell Wenzel and Asthana Personal Injury Lawyers is looking to bring more schools and universities offering programs in legal education, from law schools to paralegal and pre-law tracks.
