Chuck Linton

Dave Wallace, founder of Restore America's Mission® states "Linton is committed to bringing responsible, common-sense leadership to Annapolis. His candidacy represents an opportunity for District 44A residents to elect a delegate who will listen to their concerns, protect taxpayers and demand greater accountability from state government."

Wallace further states "Chuck Linton understands that public office is a public trust and the people of District 44A deserve a representative who will put their needs ahead of partisan politics and work to make Maryland safer, more affordable and more accountable. RAM® believes Maryland families need leaders who will support safe communities, responsible government spending, educational opportunity, economic growth and policies that help working families and small businesses succeed.
