Mike Field Quintet Brings Upbeat Jazz and Global Influences to East Gwillimbury's Celebrating the Arts

Free outdoor concert on Saturday, September 26 blends original jazz, world music, singer-songwriter sounds and rock from 2:45–3:45 p.m.

Mike Field - Jazz Trumpeter & Composer

EAST GWILLIMBURY, ONTARIO, CANADA, September 25, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Toronto trumpeter, composer, guitarist and vocalist Mike Field brings his quintet to East Gwillimbury this Saturday, September 26, for an afternoon of upbeat music at Celebrating the Arts. The group performs from 2:45–3:45 p.m. at the Health and Active Living Plaza, 160 Jim Mortson Drive. Admission is free and all ages are welcome.

Featuring mostly original compositions alongside a couple of jazz standards, the set will move between instrumental jazz, world music, singer-songwriter material and touches of rock. With Field switching between trumpet, guitar and vocals, audiences can expect a spirited performance full of memorable melodies, playful improvisation and rhythms that invite them to get up and dance.

> Mike Field has the audience firmly in his grasp... with three enthusiastically received encores... An extraordinary concert... Lively, fresh, and full of playful energy."
>
> Reutlinger General-Anzeiger (Germany)

Joining Field are Pat Smith on tenor saxophone, Duncan Wilson on keys, Chris Parnis on upright bass and Lowell Whitty on drums. Together, the quintet brings the energy and spontaneity of live jazz to a wide-ranging set made for an afternoon outdoors.

Presented by the Rice Group, Celebrating the Arts runs from 11 a.m. to 8 p.m., bringing together live entertainment, art, cultural activities, local artisans and food trucks as part of Ontario Culture Days. Visitors can make a day of the festivities and catch the quintet on the HALP Stage and Entertainment Pavilion – RBC TK Investment Group.

The concert takes place outdoors, rain or shine, with a backup location available in the event of thunderstorms. Bring a lawn chair or blanket, gather your friends and family, and settle in for an hour of music—or leave room to dance.

EXPERIENCE THE MUSIC LIVE

Mike Field Quintet at Celebrating the Arts
Saturday, September 26, 2026
Performance: 2:45–3:45 p.m.
Health and Active Living Plaza
160 Jim Mortson Drive, East Gwillimbury, Ontario
Free admission • All ages • Outdoors, rain or shine

Festival details and full schedule

FEATURING

Mike Field — trumpet, guitar and vocals
Pat Smith — tenor saxophone
Duncan Wilson — keys
Chris Parnis — upright bass
Lowell Whitty — drums

ABOUT MIKE FIELD

Mike Field is a Toronto-based jazz trumpeter, composer, guitarist, and vocalist whose original music has earned international recognition through awards, radio airplay, and performances across North America, Europe, Australia, and New Zealand. His latest album, Nashland, continues his tradition of writing memorable, upbeat original jazz compositions inspired by the enduring appeal of classic standards while showcasing a contemporary voice.

MEDIA RESOURCES

Watch official "Traffic Police" music video:
https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=clFuMnEJH90

Watch the official “Bad Lessons” music video:
https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=HNqxPewAHAU

High-resolution photos, audio clips, and additional press materials:
https://www.mikefieldjazz.com/press

Mike Field
Mike Field Jazz Inc.
+1 416-220-2206
email us here

This press release can be viewed online at: https://www.einpresswire.com/article/945029254

EIN Presswire's priority is source transparency. We do not allow opaque clients, and our editors try to be careful about weeding out false and misleading content. As a user, if you see something we have missed, please do bring it to our attention. Your help is welcome. EIN Presswire, Everyone's Internet News Presswire™, tries to define some of the boundaries that are reasonable in today's world. Please see our Editorial Guidelines for more information.
© 1995-2026 Newsmatics Inc. All Right Reserved.