

All Dogs Unleashed Carrollton Provides Structured Board and Train Programs

The Luna Rd team provides structured training and routine care for dogs enrolled in its two-week Board and Train program.

CARROLLTON, TX, UNITED STATES, September 25, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Carrollton training facility operated by All Dogs Unleashed at 2401 Luna Rd offers a two-week Board and Train program in a structured setting for dogs during their stay.

Board and Train programs place dogs in a residential training environment for an extended stay. For owners evaluating a program, understanding the facility's care approach is an important part of the decision.

At All Dogs Unleashed in Carrollton, TX, Board and Train dogs participate in daily training sessions and receive routine care throughout their two-week stay.

A dog adjusting to a new environment may need time and consistency as it settles into a new routine. The Board and Train program gives owners a structured option for building core obedience and behavior foundations during a two-week stay.

The distinction matters in practical terms. Dogs enrolled in the two-week Board and Train program at the Carrollton facility receive daily structured training sessions that cover core obedience commands, including sit, stay, heel, come, and place, along with behavioral correction for issues such as leash pulling, jumping, nuisance barking, and door dashing. Training also includes structured socialization with other dogs in controlled settings. The consistency of that training depends on dogs that are rested, properly fed, and settled in their environment, all of which require attentive care during the hours between the last evening session and the first morning routine.

The Board and Train program combines daily instruction with routine care in a structured environment. Training focuses on clear communication and consistent practice that owners can continue after their dog returns home.

The Carrollton facility provides a structured setting for dogs enrolled in Board and Train. The program is designed to give dogs consistent practice with their trainers before owners continue the work at home.

For owners, leaving a dog at a training facility for two weeks is a significant commitment. The Board and Train program gives owners a structured training option and a go-home session to help continue the work after their dog returns home.

All Dogs Unleashed offers Board and Train services for owners seeking structured training support. The Carrollton facility provides a local option for dogs enrolled in the two-week program.

Every dog that graduates from the Board and Train program at the Carrollton facility receives lifetime follow-up support. Owners can contact the training team after graduation to ask questions or request guidance on emerging behaviors. The program concludes with a go-home session where trainers walk owners through every command and technique their dog has learned, helping support a smooth transition back to the home environment.
