NEW YORK, NY, UNITED STATES,

September 28, 2026 /

EINPresswire.com/ -- National insurance defense trial firm Tyson & Mendes, LLP announced today Patrick J. Healey has been named New York Branch Office Managing Partner. Healey leverages his more than three decades of civil litigation and trial experience to lead the firm's growth and representation of clients defending against Nuclear Verdicts®.

Founding Partner Robert F. Tyson, Jr., Tyson & Mendes

Healey's practice specializes in matters involving professional negligence, medical malpractice, New York labor law, automobile and premises liability, municipal liability, civil rights, products liability, employment litigation, insurance coverage, and ERISA. He has tried hundreds of arbitrations and cases to verdict as sole trial counsel, as well as served as co-counsel at trial in approximately 50 cases in the state and federal courts of New York, Pennsylvania, and New Jersey.

“We are thrilled our New York teams and clients will benefit from Pat's proven leadership and trial acumen. His judgment, experience, and temperament will continue to help us deliver excellence in New York and beyond,” said Tyson and Mendes' Founding Partner Robert F. Tyson, Jr.

Healey was one of 21 litigators who made the move to Tyson & Mendes when the firm acquired Rebar Kelly in June. In addition to serving at partner at Rebar Kelly, Healey served as staff counsel for two of the nation's largest insurance companies, was a partner at a firm representing one of the nation's largest hospitals, and served as managing partner of the New York office of a multi-state insurance defense firm. He has authored numerous appellate briefs and argued before the Pennsylvania Superior and Commonwealth Courts, the Appellate Division of the New York Supreme Court, and the Second and Third Circuit Courts of Appeals. Healey is admitted to the state and federal courts of New York, Pennsylvania, and New Jersey, as well as the Second and Third Circuit Courts of Appeals and the United States Supreme Court. He was recognized by Super Lawyers® in 2025.

“Pat's trial experience, expertise in navigating the challenges defendants face in New York legal system, and people-first approach make him uniquely qualified to lead our New York office through our current, continued growth,” said National Managing Partner Cayce Lynch. “Pat’s leadership will be critical as we continue to expand our presence in one of the nation’s most significant, plaintiff-friendly jurisdictions to meet client needs.”

“I am honored to lead our New York office and guide our team of talented attorneys and staff in our efforts to deliver the best representation available to clients, leveraging The Apex as we stop Nuclear Verdicts®,” said Healey. The Apex is the firm’s trial-tested, data-backed blueprint for the defense to stop outsized and disproportionate jury awards, unveiled in the book, Nuclear Verdicts® - The Apex: Break the Pattern, published in October.
