Mr. Raj Shah, CEO & Founder of Coherent Market Insights, will deliver a session titled "Drone Industry Analysis, Opportunity Landscape and Future Outlook – India," covering emerging opportunities, technology adoption, regulatory developments, and the industry's outlook in the years ahead.

"What our data consistently shows is that India's drone industry is no longer a niche or experimental category — it's becoming measurable in the same terms we use for established sectors: addressable market size, adoption curves, and regional penetration rates. When a sector starts generating that kind of quantifiable structure, it usually means the next phase isn't about proving the technology works, it's about scaling who uses it," said Mr. Raj Shah, CEO & Founder of Coherent Market Insights.

CMI will also have a stall at the event — Stall I4, Hall 2D — where attendees can explore the firm's research on drone market trends, emerging technologies, and growth opportunities across the sector.
