Chandler clients increasingly seek natural-looking rejuvenation, healthier skin, and stronger contours--yet many struggle to determine which treatment is appropriate. At SkinLab, our commitment goes beyond recommendations: we're dedicated to helping clients reach their aesthetic goals and delivering the exceptional results and experience they deserve.

"Five consecutive years of recognition means our consultation-first approach works," said Marichu Evans, owner and CEO of SkinLab. "We listen, educate thoroughly, and build a plan tailored to each client's goals. But we also care deeply about the entire experience--from our luxurious facility to our expert clinical team to the advanced technology we use. We're here to deliver results and an experience our clients can't find anywhere else."
What Sets SkinLab Apart

SkinLab's model begins with candidacy assessment, health history, and realistic expectations before any recommendation. Treatment options include neuromodulators, dermal fillers, biostimulators (Sculptra, hyperdilute Radiesse), HALO laser resurfacing, BBL photofacials, RF microneedling, and professional skincare. For comprehensive goals, the practice coordinates injectables with body contouring and medically guided wellness options.

Client-Centric Approach: Every consultation focuses on the client's specific goals. We design individualized treatment plans and deliver measurable results--backed by expert providers, cutting-edge equipment, and a commitment to excellence at every step.

Luxurious Clinical Environment: Our state-of-the-art facility combines clinical precision with a serene, upscale setting. Clients experience the best of both: advanced medical care in an environment designed for comfort and confidence.

Expert Team & Advanced Technology: Board-certified providers, hands-on training, medical oversight, and the industry's most advanced equipment ensure consistent, exceptional results. We invest in the best because our clients deserve nothing less.
