

KeraLink International Welcomes Sujanita Srinivas to Board of Directors

BALTIMORE, MD, UNITED STATES, September 29, 2026

/EINPresswire.com/ -- KeraLink International today announced the appointment of Sujanita Srinivas as a new member of its Board of Directors. She brings extensive healthcare leadership experience, with expertise in national partnerships, commercial strategy, and operational transformation across large-scale healthcare technology platforms.

"I'm honored to join Keralink's Board," said Sujanita "Keralink's work to restoring sight is a mission I'm proud to stand behind, and I'm excited to help advance the innovation needed to reach communities in India and around the world where too many people still live with preventable corneal blindness."

Sujanita Srinivas,
KeraLink Board Member

Sujanita most recently served as Vice President of National Partnerships at GE Healthcare, where she led a $1 billion portfolio of integrated service partnerships across 20 major national integrated delivery networks. She holds degrees in biochemistry, biotechnology, and molecular biology from Delhi University, Jawaharlal Nehru University, and Brandeis University, respectively. She is also a certified Lean Six Sigma Master Black Belt.

"Sujanita brings valuable healthcare leadership and partnership experience to KeraLink's Board," said Michelle Bockman, CEO of KeraLink International. "Her expertise will help support our continued growth and our work to expand access to eye care around the world."
