

Regal Court Reporting Reunites with Veterans Legal Institute for 12th Annual Lawyers for Warriors

Champions for change Isaiah and Stephanie Leslie share a passion for furthering the impact Veterans Legal Institute has on the honorable community it serves

SANTA ANA, CA, UNITED STATES,
September 29, 2026 /

EINPresswire.com/ -- As the only nonprofit public interest law firm in the nation dedicated exclusively to the legal needs of current and former military members, Veterans Legal Institute's mission is clear: to provide pro bono legal assistance to homeless, at-risk, disabled, and low-income service members and veterans — eradicating barriers to housing, healthcare, education, and employment, and fostering self-sufficiency.

Regal Court Reporting's Andy Nation Supporting Veteran's Legal Institute

Regal Court Reporting's devotion to supporting those who have faithfully served our country remains unwavering. Choosing to partner with Veterans Legal Institute for the last ten years while supporting as the official court reporter sponsor for the last five years, husband-and-wife duo Isaiah and Stephanie Leslie are honored to be part of this milestone celebration — one that recognizes the nonprofit's dedication, empowerment, and victories for its clients to date, while looking ahead to the future.

The 12th Annual Lawyers for Warriors gala will honor Lee Goldberg as Attorney of the Year, Klinedinst PC as Law Firm of the Year, and the "Fantastic Four" — Cory Vigil, Mark Tyler, Commissioner Richard G. Vogl (Ret.), and Lisa Gievers Davies — as Veterans of the Year.

“Our faithful service as a firm extends beyond the courtroom, into the community and to our troops. We give thanks for their devoted service in pursuit of protecting our freedom, and we carry that same honor and humility in our work to protect the record.” Isaiah Leslie, Co-Founder, Regal Court Reporting
