Rimes Appoints Susanna Yallop as Chief People Officer

Former Starling Bank Chief People Officer brings more than 25 years of experience across fintech, banking, insurance and energy

LONDON AND NEW YORK, NY, UNITED KINGDOM, September 30, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Rimes, a leading provider of enterprise data management and investment intelligence solutions to the global investment community, today announced the appointment of Susanna Yallop as Chief People Officer.

Based in London, Yallop will lead Rimes' global people agenda across talent, culture, and leadership development as the company continues to advance its Intelligence Fabric for Capital Markets vision globally.

Yallop brings more than 25 years of experience building high-performing, inclusive organizations across fintech, banking, insurance and energy. She joins Rimes from Starling Bank, the UK's first digital bank, where she served as Chief People Officer and led the people function through a period of rapid growth. Earlier in her career, she held senior roles at BP Plc, ABN AMRO NV and Hiscox Plc, and founded an independent HR consultancy supporting organizations through transformation.

"Susanna joins Rimes at an important point in our evolution." said Vijay Mayadas, CEO of Rimes. "As we build the Intelligence Fabric for Capital Markets and harness the rapidly advancing capabilities of AI, our ability to attract, develop and retain exceptional people is central to our success. Susanna's deep experience leading people functions through periods of growth and transformation will play an important role in strengthening our culture, leadership and talent agenda as we scale the business globally."

"Rimes has a strong reputation for solving some of the most complex data challenges facing the global investment community," Susanna Yallop commented. "I am excited to join the company at such an important stage in its growth, and to work with Vijay and the leadership team to support our people, strengthen our culture and help the business deliver for clients."

Yallop holds a BSc in Human Biology from King’s College London and is a Chartered Member of the Chartered Institute of Personnel and Development.
