Legendary Broadcaster Brother Sam Tate Marks More Than 60 Years on the Air with New Memoir

My Life on Air traces a lifetime of broadcasting, faith, aviation, and service.

GREENSBORO, NC, UNITED STATES, September 29, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- After more than six decades on the air, legendary broadcaster Brother Sam Tate shares the defining experiences behind his life and career in My Life on Air, released today by Zhana Publishing, a division of The Zhana Corporation. The memoir is available worldwide through Amazon.com (My Life on AIR).

> Brother Sam Tate's story documents more than a remarkable career in broadcasting; it reflects a sustained commitment to service, opportunity, and purpose."
>
> Representative of Zhana Publishing

Tate's broadcasting career began in 1964 at WEAL Radio in Greensboro, North Carolina. He later founded WOIX, Blowing Rock's first radio station, and has produced and hosted the first internationally syndicated Oldie/Goldie Black Gospel Radio Show (Gospel Gems) since 1992. His memoir connects that broadcasting legacy with a life shaped by faith, education, aviation, military service, and community leadership.

"Brother Sam Tate's story documents more than a remarkable career in broadcasting; it reflects a sustained commitment to service, opportunity, and purpose," said a representative of Zhana Publishing. "My Life on Air brings that legacy to readers around the world."

My Life on Air is available now worldwide through Amazon and coming soon to Walmart.com. Readers can support the launch by sharing Brother Sam Tate's story and posting a review.

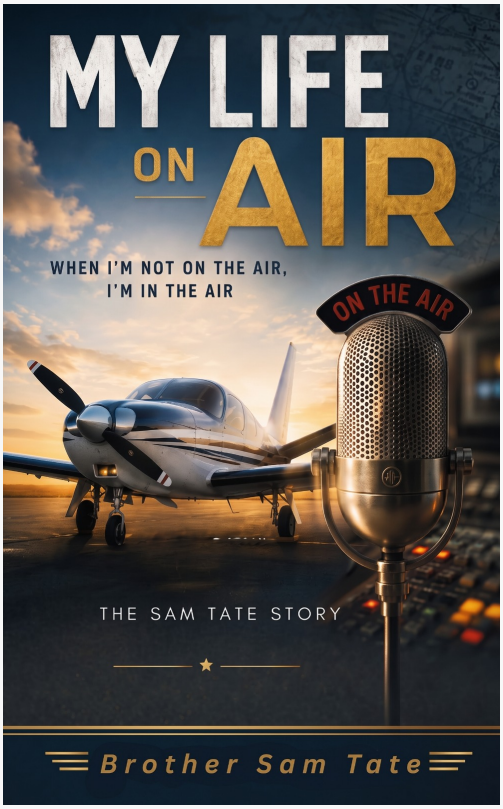

Media inquiries: Review copies, interview requests, and additional information are available through the media contact below.

About Brother Sam Tate
Samuel B. Tate is an author, educator, international broadcast consultant, U.S. Army veteran, and pioneering aviator who sits on the distinguished Board of Advisors for the Strategic Alliance for Economic Emancipation (SAFEE) Global Initiative. He served as president of the 58,000-member New Farmers of America and held leadership roles within the North Carolina Community College System. One of the first African American commercial pilots in the United States and a former FAA-certified flight instructor, Tate plans to expand aviation opportunities for underrepresented youth through the Samuel B. Tate Flying Colors Youth Aviation Scholarship

About Zhana Corporation
Founded by Lorraine B. Edwards, The Zhana Corporation is a Georgia-based media and publishing enterprise that develops family-focused intellectual property through its publishing imprint and Zhana+ TV. Its portfolio spans publishing, music, video, educational entertainment, games, and branded merchandise.

Erica Moore
Zhana Corporation
+1 855-807-2578
publishing@zhanacorporation.com
Visit us on social media:
Facebook

Sam Tate's Book Cover

This press release can be viewed online at: https://www.einpresswire.com/article/946170496

EIN Presswire's priority is source transparency. We do not allow opaque clients, and our editors try to be careful about weeding out false and misleading content. As a user, if you see something we have missed, please do bring it to our attention. Your help is welcome. EIN Presswire, Everyone's Internet News Presswire™, tries to define some of the boundaries that are reasonable in today's world. Please see our Editorial Guidelines for more information.
© 1995-2026 Newsmatics Inc. All Right Reserved.