Good Fortune, Real Impact: Spring Dell's 33rd Annual Auction Set for November 20

Local Nonprofit Supporting Adults with Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities Plans 33rd Annual Auction at the Greater Waldorf Jaycees Hall

Enjoy a delicious dinner in a space of community and togetherness.

WALDORF, MD, UNITED STATES, September 30, 2026 / EINPresswire.com/ -- Spring Dell Center will host its 33rd Annual Auction on Friday, November 20, 2026, at the Greater Waldorf Jaycees Hall in Waldorf, Maryland.

This year's theme, "Fortunate to Have You," gathers the businesses, organizations, families and community members whose donations and support help Spring Dell assist adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities to pursue greater independence, meaningful employment and full lives in the community.

Spring Dell's largest annual fundraiser is expected to welcome approximately 400 guests. Attendees will experience opportunities to bid on a variety of gifts, baskets and experiences curated from Southern Maryland businesses while having a three-course dinner, music and raffles. Past auctions have featured vacation experiences, sporting event tickets, golf packages, dining experiences, artwork, furniture, gift cards, autographed memorabilia and more.

Proceeds from the auction support Spring Dell programs including Employment Services, Career Bridges, Meaningful Day services and Community Living. These programs help people identify and pursue their own goals — whether that means finding a job, developing new skills, becoming more independent at home or strengthening connections within the community.

Businesses and community members can support the auction through sponsorships, donated auction items or attendance. Sponsors receive recognition through the event program, event signage and Spring Dell's social media channels.

Sponsorship opportunities and tickets are available at springdellcenter.org/annual-auction-2026. Auction items may be donated through November 6, 2026.
