Concierge Auctions Announces Hong Kong Global Sale Success, Achieving Over US$350M in Aggregate Bids

More than US$350 million in aggregate bids were placed as a global audience competed for marquee properties spanning North America and Europe

Renamor, 120 Ridge Road, Tuxedo Park, Hudson Valley, New York

NEW YORK, NY, UNITED STATES, September 30, 2026 / EINPresswire.com/ -- Today, Concierge Auctions, the world's largest luxury real estate auction house, is pleased to announce the success of its annual Hong Kong Global Sale. Bidding culminated live at The Upper House in Hong Kong, where a curated selection of marquee properties spanning New York, Texas, Florida, the Dordogne region of France, and more took the auction block.

As one of Concierge Auctions' most anticipated events of the year, the sale attracted robust participation and competitive bidding from qualified buyers. Livestreamed to a global audience via conciergeauctions.com, the sale generated over US$350M in aggregate bids.

Furthermore, 39 property connoisseurs competed by telephone through a team of specialists, and online from across 4 continents and 15 U.S. states; totaling 105 bids placed. The auction was conducted by Concierge Auctions' Head Auctioneer, Frank Trunzo.

"More than US$350 million in aggregate bids is a compelling demonstration of what happens when exceptional real estate is presented to qualified buyers on a truly global stage," said Chad Roffers, CEO and Co-Founder of Concierge Auctions. "Hong Kong brought together property connoisseurs from around the world, transforming international reach into real-time competition and decisive action."

The firm's Hong Kong Global Sale presented an exceptional range of luxury real estate, from architecturally significant estates and storied private enclaves to premier waterfront holdings in some of the world's most coveted destinations, including:

Hong Kong Global Sale 2026 Live Bidding

Renamor, 120 Ridge Road, Tuxedo Park, Hudson Valley, New York
Renamor spans more than 150 private acres within historic Tuxedo Park, adjoining nearly 2,000 acres of protected parkland and bridle trails just 50 minutes from Manhattan. Built in 1928, the French Provincial estate includes three residences totaling more than 22,000 square feet, a boathouse, log cabin, spa, tea house, tennis court, dual pools, and a net-zero microgrid that allows the property to operate independently of local utilities. 120 Ridge Road achieved a sale price of US$10.711M in cooperation with Richard Ellis of Ellis Sotheby's International Realty.
