Morris County Chamber to host NJDOT Update with Commissioner Priya Jain Oct 8

Discussion will focus on projects that maintain and improve New Jersey's transportation infrastructure.

Priya Jain, NJDOT Commissioner

FLORHAM PARK, NJ, UNITED STATES, October 2, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Morris County (NJ) Chamber of Commerce will host a Transportation Update with New Jersey Department of Transportation (NJDOT) Commissioner Priya Jain Thursday, Oct. 8, at 11:30 a.m. at the Park Avenue Club in Florham Park. Jain will discuss projects that maintain and improve New Jersey's transportation infrastructure. This overview will highlight the importance transportation initiatives – from strategic planning to infrastructure upgrades – have on the region's economic future.

The event also will feature a panel discussion focusing on Beyond Mobility: How Transportation Agencies Are Shaping New Jersey's Economic Future. Transportation agencies play a critical role in New Jersey's economic future and industry leaders will discuss how infrastructure investments, transit-oriented development, emerging mobility technologies and innovative partnerships are enhancing business growth, workforce access, freight movement and regional competitiveness across the state.

> "The state of New Jersey's transportation system, including roads, highways and bridges, and mass transit, impacts every business in some way."
> Meghan Hunscher, President

The panelists are expected to include: Genevieve Clifton, director of multimodal and maritime resources at NJDOT; Aaron Sherburne, deputy director of aviation planning at the Port Authority of New York and New Jersey; and Gagandeep Singh, senior vice president of real estate, technology & business intelligence at NJ TRANSIT. The discussion will be moderated by Joann Papageorgis, department manager of planning and sustainability consulting at construction engineering firm Dewberry.

Aaron Sherburne, Deputy Director of Aviation Planning at the Port Authority of New York and New Jersey

Gagandeep Singh, Senior Vice President of Real Estate, Technology & Business Intelligence at NJ TRANSIT
