

RFT's Help Alert ® Pendant Nominated in Second Round of Coolest Thing Made in Wisconsin Contest

BROOKFIELD, WI, UNITED STATES, October 2, 2026

/EINPresswire.com/ -- RF Technologies (RFT®), has empowered a safer world since 1987 with leading life safety and security solutions, is honored to announce its Help Alert® Staff Protection Pendant has advanced to the final 16 in the Coolest Thing Made in Wisconsin contest taking place October 1, 2026.

Ernie Chan, CEO of RFT

Thousands of votes were cast in the nomination round, with the RFT Help Alert Pendant now competing against 16 companies across Wisconsin. Of the 16, only 6 companies represent the state from the Milwaukee area. Voting continues throughout October in a bracket-style competition culminating in a winner announced at the WMC's Business Day on October 27th.

Users of Help Alert are concerned about violence in workplaces, hospitals, and schools which continues to rise in the U.S. and affects employees, students and families. The Help Alert Pendant is safeguarding 100,000 healthcare workers to date and is installed across the country protecting staff in many different industries.

The pendant is the smallest, long-range wearable panic button that operates independently of Wi-Fi while providing seamless indoor and outdoor coverage and enables employees to discreetly request assistance during potentially dangerous situations with one button press.

Nurses, teachers, and other employees who use the pendant report they really like its clear visual and tactile two-way feedback, continuous tracking after activation, lightweight, comfortable design and reliable coverage in parking lots.

You can vote for RFT's Help Alert Pendant on the Coolest Thing Made in Wisconsin website starting on Thursday, October 1, at 8:00 a.m.□
