

POWER HOME REMODELING #2 ON FORTUNE'S BEST WORKPLACES IN CONSTRUCTION 2026 LIST

The nation's leading exterior home remodeler recognized for workplace excellence in construction industry for fourth consecutive year

CHESTER, PA, UNITED STATES, October 6, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Power Home Remodeling

While we're proud to receive this recognition, we're still designing for the future, so that POWER will always be a place where our people feel supported, valued, and empowered to grow.”

POWER's Chief Production Officer, Rob Borislow

(“POWER”), the nation's leading exterior home remodeler, has landed the #2 spot on the 2026 Fortune Best Workplaces in Construction™ List, receiving recognition in the large company category for the fourth consecutive year.

The Best Workplaces in Construction award is based on survey responses from over 64,000 employees at Great Place To Work Certified™ companies in the construction industry. Honorees were selected based on their ability to offer positive outcomes for employees regardless of job role, work status, or other demographic factors. The results are part of Great Place to Work's annual workforce study, which includes more than 1.3 million survey responses representing over 7.3 million employees.

“POWER's commitment to ‘best-in-class service’ extends beyond our duty to deliver excellent experiences to homeowners. It permeates our culture, our impact, and our strategy as we continue to grow and evolve,” said POWER's Chief Production Officer, Rob Borislow. “While we're proud to receive this recognition, we're still designing for the future, so that POWER will always be a place where our people feel supported, valued, and empowered to grow.”

As a people-first company with a 96% employee approval rating according to Great Place To Work, POWER remains dedicated to realizing the potential in every home, community, and person we serve through continued investment in employee growth, well-being, and community impact:

Career Development & Skilled Trades: More than 300 graduates of POWER's Dan Price

Craftsmanship Academy (DPCA), which creates pathways into skilled-trades careers through hands-on training, alongside extensive leadership development and mentorship programs beginning on employees' first day.

Employee Engagement, Leadership & Benefits: 47.9% collective diversity in leadership according to POWER's internal surveys, a metric supported by employee affinity groups and an annual summit; expanded benefits informed by the 2025 Listening Tour, including grace leave, family-building support, and medical travel assistance; and a $360 million employee bonus tied to POWER's 2026 private equity investment, distributed with no vesting period.

Community Impact: POWER's Pledge 1% commitment, employee-directed giving initiatives, and eight paid volunteer hours empower employees to support meaningful causes and connect with their local communities through volunteerism and nonprofit partnerships.

"Congratulations to the Fortune Best Workplaces in Construction," says Michael C. Bush, CEO of Great Place To Work. "People are at the heart of work in every industry, and construction is no exception. These companies show how delivering for your people drives financial performance and turns fear of the future into the confidence to win."

POWER's reputation as one of the most trusted home remodeling companies in the country spans over 30 years and one million lifetime customers. POWER is also a Qualified Remodeler Top 500 company, which highlights leading organizations within the construction industry. In 2026, POWER has earned workplace recognitions including #20 of Fortune 200 Best Companies to Work For list, #14 on Glassdoor's Best CEOs list, and recognized on PEOPLE Companies That Care list.

About the Fortune Best Workplaces in Construction List

Great Place To Work selected the Fortune Best Workplaces in Construction by analyzing confidential survey responses from over 1.3 million employees, representing the experience of 7.3 million employees in the U.S. in 2025 and 2026. Of those responses, over 64,000 came from employees at Great Place To Work Certified companies in the construction industry, and these rankings are based on that feedback. Companies with 10 to 999 employees competed in the small and medium category. Companies with 1,000 or more employees were considered for the large category. Read the full methodology.
