$10,000 in Prizes Hidden Across Miami

Stack's Bowers Galleries, legendary dealer in rare coins, gold and silver bullion and currency from all countries for more than nine decades, is inviting treasure hunters across Miami to take part in Treasure Hunt 2026, a citywide scavenger hunt offering $10,000 in prizes hidden throughout Miami, October 6-10.

Several iconic locations throughout the city have been selected, and each day during the treasure hunt, a hidden prize certificate will be placed at one of the locations. Stack's Bowers Galleries will be posting clues for each of the hiding places on the firm's showrooms' Instagram page. Each day will be a different location, and the lucky winner can bring their "Stack's Bowers Certificate" to Miami's retail gallery location to receive a numismatic prize. Follow this page for updates every day.

Prizes will vary for each day, but the gallery will be giving away $10,000 worth of numismatic collectibles, ranging from an approximate retail value of $300 to a grand prize valued at around $3,500.

Starting October 6, participants can follow clues and solve riddles tied to Miami's unique history to uncover their share of $10,000 in hidden prizes.
