For over 60 years, Realty Executives has been a cornerstone of the Arizona real estate landscape, dedicated to meeting the diverse needs of home buyers and sellers. Today, the brand is experiencing a period of tremendous growth and revitalization under its new local ownership team. The opening of this new Southeast Valley location marks a significant milestone in that expansion, providing a premium space for top-tier real estate professionals while creating a welcoming resource for the many communities the office serves.

We want this to be more than a place to conduct transactions—it will be a welcoming community hub deeply connected to the people and neighborhoods we serve.”

Nick Bastian

“We are incredibly excited to establish this new Southeast Valley hub in such a central and accessible part of Tempe,” said Nick Bastian, Branch Manager. “While our office is located in South Tempe, our vision extends well beyond a single city. We are here to serve the diverse and growing communities throughout the Southeast Valley, including Tempe, Chandler, Ahwatukee, and the surrounding areas. We want this to be more than a place to conduct transactions—it will be a welcoming community hub deeply connected to the people and neighborhoods we serve.”

Strategically positioned near Kyrene and Warner roads, the new office offers exceptional convenience for both clients and real estate professionals throughout the Southeast Valley. Its central Tempe location provides easy access to surrounding communities and major transportation routes, making it an ideal base for serving a broad area of the Phoenix metropolitan market. The office is also just minutes from prominent employment hubs featuring major corporations such as Intel, Honeywell, and Avnet, as well as exceptional local dining, shopping, entertainment, and residential communities.

The office will serve as a local base for exceptional real estate professionals. Realty Executives agents—known across the industry as “Executives”—are widely recognized as some of the most experienced, highly trained, and productive agents in the business. This new workspace provides them with cutting-edge resources and a professional environment designed to help them deliver the high level of service clients have trusted for decades.

Reflecting a core commitment to local community engagement, the new Southeast Valley location is designed with an open-door philosophy. Once the current remodeling is finalized, neighbors, clients, and friends from across the Southeast Valley are invited to stop by the beautiful lobby entrance (the first door on the left inside the building) for hot coffee, cold refreshments, and expert market insights. The location will also serve as a gathering point for
