Davinci Micro Fulfillment Expands Network, Opens New eCommerce Support Facility in Pennsylvania

New "micro site" ecommerce fulfillment operation opens in Pennsylvania, uses AI-enabled tech to speed delivery of online orders in one or two days.

Davinci Micro Fulfillment has opened its sixth "micro site" ecommerce support center in Jenkins Township, PA. Davinci CEO Corey Apirian (center, with scissors) marks the milestone with local officials.

JENKINS TOWNSHIP, PA, UNITED STATES, October 7, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Davinci Micro Fulfillment, which operates a distributed network of “micro site” fulfillment centers providing end to end order, inventory and shipping management for eCommerce sellers, has opened its sixth U.S. facility in Pennsylvania’s Jenkins Township.

Located in Luzerne County, at 141 Commonwealth Drive in CenterPoint Commerce & Trade Park South, the leased facility has 36,231 square feet of space and is purpose designed with equipment, resources and technology to support fulfillment of consumer brands marketed through eCommerce channels including Amazon, Walmart, TikTok and direct-to-consumer platforms.

Founded in 2020, Davinci forward-positions client inventory in smaller fulfillment centers close to consumers to accelerate delivery and reduce shipping costs. The company’s solution incorporates strategically sited warehousing facilities, skilled personnel and a portfolio of AI-enabled technology tools.

The integrated service helps consumer brands optimize and organize inventory, deploy the ideal merchandise mix, streamline order management, drive efficient pick, pack and shipping operations, and speed goods to market to reduce overall landed cost. The company’s network can reach customers throughout the United States within two days or less.

“Jenkins Township becomes the sixth micro-fulfillment warehouse in our U.S. network. It provided the ideal site and a modern facility to enable us to expand our eCommerce order fulfillment coverage further throughout the Northeast U.S.," noted Corey Apirian, Davinci's founder and chief executive. "By enabling consumer brands to forward stage products closer to the consumer, we are helping them keep their brand promise through accurate, fast, cost-efficient order fulfillment that delights the customer and keeps them coming back."

Davinci Micro Fulfillment specializes in fast-turn eCommerce fulfillment, positioning product close to consumers for fast order delivery

Apirian says the new Jenkins Township location will initially employ 10 people, with expectations of growth to 15 employees by the end of the year as new clients are signed and onboarded into the facility.

"We are excited to welcome Davinci Micro Fulfillment to Greater Pittston," said Michelle Mikitish, President of the Greater Pittston Chamber of Commerce. "The company's decision to establish an operation in CenterPoint South is another vote of confidence in our community as a great place to do business. We wish the Davinci team much success and look forward to having them as part of the Greater Pittston business community."

CenterPoint Commerce and Trade Park South was developed by Mericle Commercial Real Estate Services. Davinci Micro Fulfillment has leased space in one of two multi-tenant flex buildings Mericle has built in the park.

"We are very pleased to welcome Davinci Micro Fulfillment to CenterPoint South," said Mericle Vice President Jim Hilsher. "Northeastern Pennsylvania's location near major East Coast population centers and its excellent interstate highway network make our region a natural fit for Davinci's business model. We appreciate their decision to establish an operation in a Mericle building and look forward to supporting their growth."
