Vitality Month 2026 Heads to Mexico City

Event Will Bring Industry Experts Together to Explore Wellness Through Every Stage of Life

LYSAKER , NORWAY, October 7, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Aker BioMarine's Vitality Month 2026 initiative is continuing its journey across Latin America, bringing together industry experts, partners and customers to explore how science, bioactives and innovative ingredients can help support wellbeing throughout every stage of life. The next event, centered on the theme "Vitalidad que acompaña cada etapa" (Vitality Through Every Stage of Life), will take place in Mexico City on October 8th at Centro Banamex, from 3:00 to 7:00 PM, in collaboration with our strategic partner NaturaExtracta.

> Vitality is not defined by a single life stage or health goal, it's about having the nutritional support to stay active, healthy and engaged as needs evolve throughout life"
> Mercè Piñol, SVP Sales, Aker BioMarine

The Mexico event, highlighting the evolving role of nutrition and innovative ingredients in supporting health and vitality across the lifespan, will unite leading voices from the nutrition, ingredient, and health industries for an afternoon of expert presentations and discussion spanning formulation and regulatory affairs to sports performance, skin, metabolic, women's, and joint health.

Representing Aker BioMarine, Mercè Piñol will present "Nutriendo la piel desde adentro" (Nourishing the Skin from Within), exploring the connection between nutrition and skin health and the potential role of krill oil as part of a holistic approach to beauty and wellbeing.

"Vitality is not defined by a single life stage or health goal, it's about having the nutritional support to stay active, healthy and engaged as needs evolve throughout life," said Mercè Piñol, SVP, Human Health Ingredients EMEA & LATAM, Aker BioMarine. "With Vitality Month, we are creating opportunities for the industry to come together around the science, innovation and ingredients that can help address these changing needs. We are excited to bring this conversation to Mexico and connect with experts across the nutrition and health landscape, and skin health is one of the biggest areas where we see lots of potential."

"The Mexican market is increasingly looking for differentiated solutions backed by science, clinical evidence and technology. Through this initiative, NaturaExtracta aims to connect the industry with global innovation, emerging health trends and new bioactive solutions, together with strategic partners such as Aker BioMarine and other international leaders," said Francisco López, Business Development Director at NaturaExtracta.

The Mexico event is part of Aker BioMarine's Vitality Month 2026, a global initiative designed to connect the nutrition industry around emerging science, market opportunities and innovative approaches to supporting a healthier, more active life. Across the initiative, Aker BioMarine is bringing its partners and industry peers together to examine how nutrition can support both body and mind, from everyday wellbeing and active lifestyles to healthy aging.

Registration is open for the Mexico City event. Attendees can register to receive updates on speakers, agenda highlights and event details. Please visit the official registration page.

About Aker BioMarine
