East Los Angeles College RB James Bo Thomas III announces availability for transfer and recruitment

ELAC Running back is ready to showcase his talent and skills at the next level

LOS ANGELES, CA, UNITED STATES, October 9, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- MONTEREY PARK, CA — East Los Angeles College (ELAC) starting running back James “Bo” Thomas III has officially released his updated season highlights and made his profile available to NCAA Division I, II, III, and NAIA college programs and running back coaches nationwide.

> James brings a relentless work ethic both in the film room and on the field. He has established himself as the engine of our backfield, and producing consistently in critical game situations,”

Standing out as a versatile, downhill playmaker in the ELAC offensive backfield, Thomas has proven himself as a complete, three-down back.

Combining explosive initial acceleration, powerful contact balance, and key vision between the tackles, he has consistently delivered game-changing plays against high-level California Community College Athletic Association (CCCAA) competition.
