many students' academic journeys firsthand, celebrating their achievements through graduation and beyond.

Louise Munday, Co-Founder, stated, "One of the most rewarding parts of this program is getting to know the students' stories and supporting their growth. Many of these recipients return semester after semester, and we have the privilege of seeing their hard work, perseverance, and achievements firsthand. They inspire us, and we are honored to play a small role in helping them reach their goals."

The scholarship recipients are pursuing a range of educational paths, reflecting the diversity of since 2021, helping employees and their dependents pursue higher education and career advancement opportunities.

The Fall 2026 scholarship class represents the Foundation's largest investment in education to date, reflecting its continued commitment to supporting the academic and professional goals of the people at 2020 Companies.

More than a financial award, the scholarship program reflects a personal commitment from Foundation founders Louise and Christopher B. Munday, who have followed talent and ambition across the 2020 Companies family. Areas of study include Healthcare, Technology, Business, Public Service & Education, and Arts & Agriculture.

Students are enrolled at colleges and universities across the nation, including Baylor University, Boise State University, Oklahoma State University, the University of Central Florida, Virginia Tech, Georgia State University, and dozens of other institutions representing nearly every region of the United States.

Christopher B. Munday, Chairman and CEO of 2020 Companies, shared, "Education creates opportunities that can change the trajectory of a person's life," said Munday. "Every scholarship represents someone who is working to build a better future for themselves, their family, and their community. Louise and I are incredibly proud of these students and grateful for the opportunity to support them as they pursue their dreams."

Since launching in 2021, the scholarship program has continued to expand its reach and impact, helping students overcome financial barriers as they pursue degrees and service-oriented careers. Many recipients are first-generation college students, while others are balancing work, family responsibilities, and academic commitments. Together, they represent the determination, resilience, and potential that the Foundation was established to encourage.
