

Bronx Halloween Parade Returns Oct. 24 with “Carnival of Nightmares” Theme

NYC's second-largest Halloween parade, led by Grand Marshals Justin Sanchez and Jason Reyes, is free for all ages and ends with a festival at Bill Rainey Park.

BRONX, NY, UNITED STATES, October 14, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Step right up, Bronx! The 41st Annual Bronx Halloween Parade, “Carnival of Nightmares – The Greatest Fear on Earth,” steps off Saturday, October 24 at noon, rain or shine, at Southern Blvd & Westchester Ave. Led by Grand Marshals Justin Sanchez and Jason Reyes, New York City’s second-largest Halloween parade brings marching bands, stilt walkers, dancers, carnival creatures and free candy down Southern Blvd. Last year, nearly 20,000 spectators lined the route! The fun continues at a family festival in Bill Rainey Park hosted by Rhina Valentin. Free and open to all ages, so come dressed to impress or to terrify! Presented by Bronx Community Board 2 and our amazing sponsors.

Bronx Halloween Parade

This parade still belongs to the families who line Southern Boulevard every October. Come in costume, bring the kids, and see why the Bronx does Halloween like nowhere else.”
