HAR.com is the consumer website of the Houston Association of REALTORS®, which has more than 50,000 members. Its Client Experience Rating surveys go only to clients an agent represented in a completed transaction, with one survey accepted per client for each side of a sale. Agents cannot edit or delete a rating once it is submitted.

“HAR's surveys can only come from clients we actually represented, which is why we used them for this study,” said Steven Kinne, founder of The Kinne Group. “Each of those reviews is from a family who trusted us with a home purchase, sale, or lease, and we're grateful to every client who took the time to share their experience.”

The study was conducted and funded by The Kinne Group using publicly available HAR.com data, and all figures can be verified on public HAR.com profiles. HAR did not sponsor, review, or endorse the study. The full study, including its methodology and rankings, is available at
