

California Consumer Attorneys P.C. Names Tina Ani Thovmasyan Recipient of 2026 Consumer Advocacy Scholarship

University of San Francisco School of Law Student earns scholarship for essay on California's Song-Beverly Consumer Warranty Act.

LOS ANGELES, CA, UNITED STATES, October 14, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- California Consumer Attorneys P.C. is pleased to announce that it has selected Tina Ani Thovmasyan of the University of San Francisco School of Law as the recipient of its 2026 Consumer Advocacy Scholarship.

Her essay, "More Than a Warranty: Making Consumer Rights Enforceable," examined how the Song-Beverly Consumer Warranty Act protects consumers in practice. Thovmasyan focused on the law's fee-shifting and civil penalty provisions, which can help make consumer rights enforceable when a manufacturer fails to meet its obligations.

The firm received many strong submissions this year. However, Thovmasyan's essay stood out for its clear explanation of how these provisions can give consumers a practical way to enforce their rights.

This annual scholarship supports students who are committed to consumer protection and advocacy. Applicants were asked to identify a California consumer protection law and describe how it has advanced consumer rights.
