Members of Dynamic Netsoft's board opened the event by reflecting on the company's first 15 years and thanking the people who contributed to its growth.

Employee recognition was at the heart of the evening. Every employee received an award acknowledging their contribution to Dynamic Netsoft's growth, while managers were also honoured for their leadership and the role they have played in guiding their teams.

Looking Ahead

Closing the evening, CEO Sirajudeen Ismail thanked employees for helping build the company, then turned to what comes next.

"Fifteen years is something to be proud of, and every person in this room is part of it," said Sirajudeen Ismail, CEO of Dynamic Netsoft Technologies. "But we did not come together only to look back. Our customers' needs are changing, and AI is changing what is possible. We will keep improving our products and bring AI into them, based on what the market truly needs."

Recognized by Microsoft

Following the celebration, Microsoft recognized Dynamic Netsoft as a Solutions Partner for Business Applications and Modern Work. The designations reflect capabilities and customer success across Microsoft technologies.

The recognition comes as Dynamic Netsoft enters its next phase, combining its experience in Microsoft Dynamics 365 with continued product development and a growing focus on AI.
