

Austin Window Fashions Named 2026 Best of Texas Award Winner

AUSTIN, TX, UNITED STATES, October 19, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Austin Window Fashions, a family-owned provider of custom window treatments serving the Austin area since 1981, has been named a 2026 Best of Texas Award winner. The recognition highlights the company's long-standing commitment to personalized design guidance, quality products, and professional installation for homeowners throughout Central Texas.

Austin Window Fashions offers Texas-made, real hardwood plantation shutters alongside the full collection of Hunter Douglas shades, blinds, vertical window treatments, and custom drapery. Clients can explore fabrics, finishes, and operating systems in person at the company's showrooms in Austin and Georgetown, or schedule a free in-home consultation with a design consultant who brings samples and takes precise measurements. Many products can also be paired with motorization and smart-home controls for added convenience and energy efficiency.

The company's approach is captured in its commitment to "Professional Service, Superb Products & Expert Installation." Austin Window Fashions designs, measures, and installs its products with its own team, relying on full-time, bonded, and insured installation professionals rather than subcontractors. Products are backed by limited lifetime warranties and ongoing service support, and much of the company's growth has come from repeat clients and referrals. Beyond its showrooms, the team takes pride in supporting the local community, including partnerships with area organizations and efforts to help local families in need.

"We're truly honored to receive this recognition," said a spokesperson for Austin Window Fashions. "For more than four decades, our goal has been to make choosing window treatments simple, informative, and stress-free. This award belongs to our design consultants, our installers, and the homeowners who have trusted us with their homes, many of them more than once."

As Austin Window Fashions looks ahead, the team remains focused on expert guidance, dependable craftsmanship, and products built to last. The 2026 Best of Texas Award marks a proud milestone for the company and reinforces its commitment to serving homeowners across the Austin area for many years to come.
