Concierge Auctions. "Spring Violet Court, with its genuine privacy, protected natural surroundings, and proximity to Jackson Hole Mountain Resort, is a property that deserved the right audience, and in just 35 days, our platform found them."

"Spring Violet Court is the kind of property that serious buyers in this market recognize immediately – the wildlife, the West Bank setting – it checks every box for someone who truly understands what Jackson Hole living is about," said Emerson. "It ultimately and quickly found a buyer who recognized exactly that. That's the outcome you hope for."

The property overlooks two permanently protected open-space parcels, with water features on two sides that attract local wildlife throughout the year. The thoughtfully designed 1994 residence pairs expansive indoor-outdoor living with a spacious deck accessible from both the great room and primary suite. Inside, a light-filled, open-concept great room is anchored by a river rock fireplace and integrated wet bar, while hardwood oak flooring and natural cedar detailing complement the home's natural surroundings.

Residents enjoy access to the Teton Pines Country Club and its Arnold Palmer-designed golf course, full-service clubhouse and tennis facilities, along with groomed Nordic ski trails in winter. Jackson Hole Mountain Resort in Teton Village is approximately seven miles north, offering downhill skiing and summer gondola access. Set on the West Bank of the Snake River, Wilson provides convenient access to Jackson's Town Square, galleries, boutiques and restaurants. Fly fishing on the Snake River, hiking and wildlife viewing, the Laurance S. Rockefeller Preserve and Grand Teton National Park are all within easy reach, while Yellowstone National Park's south entrance is approximately 90 minutes away.
