EUREKA SPRINGS, AR, UNITED STATES, October 16, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Forest Springs Resort is a wedding venue in Eureka Springs where the whole wedding party can stay in one place. The 10-acre, tree-lined property has 50 guest rooms, so a wedding party, family reunion or company retreat can stay together instead of spreading across several hotels around town.

Eureka Springs has long been a popular wedding destination, and among the wedding venues in Eureka Springs, the resort offers a woodland setting. Ceremonies can take place among the trees, while the wooden decks and the pool terrace, lit by string lights in the evening, offer room for receptions, welcome drinks and group photos. The pool is outdoor and seasonal, so availability depends on the weather and the time of year.

> “A good group weekend works best when everyone is in one place, with room to spread out and room to come back together.”
> Jacobo Hernandez, Owner, Forest Springs Resort

Weddings can take place on weekdays and weekends, with buyout options available for larger celebrations, so couples can plan an event with the whole property to themselves.

The 50 guest rooms come in a range of layouts, from king rooms and double queen rooms for families to suites with a full kitchenette, so a wedding party can mix room types. Dogs are welcome with no pet fee, up to two per room, so guests can bring their pets along for the weekend.

Between events, guests have plenty to do without leaving the property. A glass sauna and a cedar cold plunge are included with every stay and make an easy wellness break for wedding weekends and retreat groups. Forest trails run through the grounds, and the Forest Lounge opens at 7 a.m. with coffee and offers beer and wine later in the day. Pickleball, ping pong and a large brick fire pit in the courtyard, where guests can make s'mores, give groups an easy way to spend time together outdoors.

Guests can self check-in and go straight to their room, with online support and front desk staff on site from 7 a.m. to 10 p.m. The Eureka Springs trolley stops at the entrance for trips to the historic downtown.

Couples and planners can ask about weddings, retreats, group stays and buyout options through forestspringsresort.com.
