Attorney Keith Magness represents people injured in car, truck, motorcycle, and rideshare accidents across the Westbank and greater New Orleans area. The firm helps injured people pursue fair compensation for medical bills, lost income, and other losses after a crash. The new location continues to serve clients throughout Gretna, Harvey, Marrero, and the surrounding communities.

"We wanted a space that made it easier for clients on the Westbank to reach us," said Magness. "The work we do for injured people after a crash hasn't changed, just the address."

The firm handles personal injury cases arising from motor vehicle accidents, including claims involving comparative fault under Louisiana's new 51% bar rule, insurance disputes, and injury claims involving rideshare services such as Uber and Lyft.

The full announcement is available on the firm's website.
