PANAMA CITY BEACH, FLORIDA, UNITED STATES, October 18, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Panama

Our goal is to make sure our guests have a memorable experience on the world's most beautiful beaches.”

Beth Mulvey, Owner of Panama City Beach House

City Beach House is beginning a new chapter in vacation hospitality. Effective October 19, 2026, the privately owned vacation rental transitions to owner-led management, with Beth Mulvey bringing a personal commitment to attentive service, clear communication and the details that make a beach vacation feel effortless.

Located approximately half a mile from the beach, the four-bedroom home with an additional open sleeping loft accommodates up to 11 guests. A private pool, complimentary hot tub, backyard putting green and free six-seat golf cart give families and friends room to relax, reconnect and enjoy Panama City Beach together. Pets are welcome with an additional fee.

Guests can explore the home, check availability and book directly at www.thepanamacitybeachhouse.com to avoid third-party booking-platform service fees.

A Former Family Home, Managed With Personal Care

For Mulvey, the property is more than a vacation rental. It was previously her family's personal home—a place filled with everyday memories before becoming a destination for other families to create their own.

“Our goal is to make sure our guests have a memorable experience on the world's most beautiful beaches,” said owner Beth Mulvey. “This was our personal home, so the care we put into it is deeply personal. We want guests to feel welcomed, supported and excited to come back.”

The family now uses the property as a short-term rental to help offset expenses associated with her husband's brain cancer diagnosis. That personal connection shapes Mulvey's approach to hospitality: recognizing how meaningful time together can be and helping guests make the most of it.

More Attention Before, During and After Every Stay

The management transition centers on responsive communication, careful preparation and a more personal guest experience. From answering questions before arrival to explaining amenities and helping guests settle in, Mulvey's focus is on making every stage of the stay clear and welcoming.

Thoughtful touches include beach towels, a beach wagon, a cooler, toiletries, comfortable bedding, sound machines, charging stations, board games and a kitchen equipped for meals together.

A Panama City Beach Getaway With More to Enjoy

For travelers seeking a Panama City Beach vacation rental with a private pool, a pet-friendly beach house, or a vacation home with a golf cart included, the property brings those features together in one place.

Guests can spend the morning at the beach, return for an afternoon swim, practice on the backyard putting green and unwind in the hot tub after dinner. The complimentary six-seat golf cart adds another way to enjoy permitted local routes.

The home offers:

- Four bedrooms, an open sleeping loft and three full bathrooms, accommodating up to 11 guests.
- A private pool, with optional heating available for an additional fee and advance notice.
- A complimentary hot tub/spa for relaxing after a day out.
