

PJI Law Announces the Promotion of Elias M. Kerby III to Partner

PJI Law, PLC promotes Elias M. Kerby III to Partner, recognizing his trust and estate expertise and commitment to personalized legal services across Virginia.

FAIRFAX, VA, UNITED STATES, October 19, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- PJI Law, PLC, a Virginia law firm serving individuals, families, and businesses throughout the Commonwealth, is pleased to announce the promotion of Elias M. Kerby, III to Partner. In his new role, Kerby will continue to help advance the firm's commitment to personalized legal representation, practical solutions, and lasting client relationships.

Kerby serves as PJI Law's Estate Administration Department Lead and has built his practice around helping clients navigate complex trust and estate matters. His work reflects a commitment to protecting clients' rights, honoring their wishes, and helping families navigate important legal and financial transitions with confidence and clarity.

Before entering private practice, Kerby began his legal career as a clerk for the Commissioner of Accounts for the Fairfax County Circuit Court, where he gained valuable experience in the oversight of trusts, estates, and fiduciary matters. He earned his Bachelor of Science, magna cum laude, and was elected to Phi Beta Kappa at Millsaps College before earning his Juris Doctor from William & Mary Law School. He is admitted to practice in Virginia, Maryland, and the District of Columbia.

"Eli brings a thoughtful, client-centered approach to his work and a deep sense of responsibility to the people he serves," said Paul J. Abraham, CEO of PJI Law. "His experience in trust and estate matters, his dedication to our clients, and his commitment to doing the right thing make him an excellent addition as Partner here at PJI Law. This promotion recognizes the contributions he has already made to our firm and reflects our confidence in the leadership he will bring to PJI Law's future."

"I'm honored to take this next step at PJI Law," said Kerby. "The work we do has a meaningful impact on our clients and their families, particularly when they are navigating some of life's most important and challenging transitions. I'm grateful for the trust Paul and my colleagues have placed in me, and I look forward to continuing to serve our clients, support our team, and help strengthen the firm for the future."

Kerby's promotion reflects PJI Law's continued investment in its people and its focus on building a team of experienced professionals who share a commitment to high-quality legal services. As the firm continues to grow, its leadership remains focused on delivering practical guidance, responsive communication, and thoughtful representation to clients throughout Virginia.
