together on one platform. The panels form part of the expo's conference on October 28–29, themed “Building manufacturing excellence capabilities in Indian food processing operations.”

Sessions on October 28 and 29 will cover snack manufacturing modernization and technology-led growth in India's food processing industry”

CMI

Panel 1: “Road Ahead for Equipment Modernization of Indian Snack Manufacturers' Operations”

October 28, 2026 | 12:00 PM – 12:50 PM | Bombay Exhibition Centre (NESCO), Mumbai

This session will examine the evolution of India's fried savoury and snack market and the challenges producers face in adopting modern processing technologies. Discussion areas include intelligent and continuous processing systems, energy efficiency, sustainability, and food safety and quality.

Panelists:

- Mr. Shubham Choubey (M.O.M Meal of the Moment)
- Mr. Shashank Joshi (360Foodsolutions)
- Mr. Gautam Agicha (Gourmax Foods LLP)

Panel 2: "Role of Innovation in Sparking Growth of Indian Food Processing Industry"

October 29, 2026 | 12:00 PM – 12:50 PM | Bombay Exhibition Centre (NESCO), Mumbai

This session will look at how family-run SME food processors approach technology investment. It will cover predictive technologies, data science, sensors, simulation, and geospatial analytics, along with barriers such as costs, return on investment, skilled workforce, cybersecurity, and integration with legacy machinery. It will also address benefits including traceability, food safety, and waste reduction, as well as government policies and incentives.

Panelists:

- Dr. Anurag Mishra (Shree Renuka Sugars Ltd.)
- Ms. Preeti Deshmukh (Food Nest)
- Mr. Shrikant Choudhary (Indovela Pure)

Professionals attending ProFood India 2026 are invited to attend both sessions and discuss the technologies and strategies shaping India's food processing industry.
