Get Simple Box Salem Makes Its Debut at the Albany Hearth & Home Improvement Show, Nov. 6-8

Local, award-winning container company invites homeowners and farmers to explore easy ways to move, rent, and buy shipping containers.

SALEM, OR, UNITED STATES, October 29, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Get Simple Box is heading to Albany! The local, family-owned portable storage company is setting up a booth at the Hearth & Home Improvement Show for the very first time.

The event runs from Nov. 6 to Nov. 8 at the Linn County Fairgrounds. Visitors simply need to look for Get Simple Box inside the event to say hello and see how shipping containers can solve everyday problems.

This exciting milestone comes just after the company was named a 2026 Best of the Willamette Valley winner for Moving Services.

Show-goers can meet the local team, see how container solutions work, and learn about the three simple ways Get Simple Box helps its customers:
1. Renting: Need extra space? Homeowners and businesses can rent 10-, 20-, or 40-foot containers. Keep them right on your property for short- or long-term use. They are perfect for home remodels or storing extra gear.
2. Buying: Farmers, builders, and property owners can buy new or used steel containers. They are wind-tight and water-tight, making them great for permanent, on-site storage.
3. Moving: We deliver a 20-foot container right to your driveway. You pack it at your own speed. When you're ready, our team moves it to your new home or stores it safely at our Salem yard.

"This is our first time at the Hearth & Home show in Albany, and we're so excited to meet our neighbors in Linn and Benton counties," said Brittney Eshuis, co-owner and local operator at the Salem location with her husband, Trevor. "Many people don't realize a simple container can be used for moving, renting during a remodel, or as a permanent shed. We want to answer your questions face-to-face and help you figure out what makes sense for your project."

Winning the Best of the Willamette Valley award shows how much trust the Eshuis family has built in the community. Unlike national chains or online brokers, Get Simple Box is locally owned and operated. When you order a box, it is delivered by their very own team using specialized trucks.
