

2026 Noble World Hotel Awards Announces Season 2 Winners Across Global Hospitality

The Noble World Hotel Awards, presented by the International Awards Associate (IAA), has announced its 2026 Season 2 winners.

NEW YORK CITY, NY, UNITED STATES, October 30, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Noble World Hotel Awards, presented by the International Awards Associate (IAA), has announced its 2026 Season 2 winners, recognizing outstanding hotels, resorts, boutique properties, villas, safari and lodge experiences, retreats, hospitality designs, and industry leaders worldwide. This season received hundreds of entries from more than 20 countries, representing established hospitality brands, independent properties, design practices, management professionals, and emerging destinations.

A Noble distinction recognizes the properties, designers, and professionals that have translated these standards into meaningful hospitality achievements”

Thomas Brandt, spokesperson of IAA

The results recognize achievements across the Noble Collection of Outstanding Properties, Noble Category Winners of the Year, Noble Excellence in Hospitality Design, and Noble Excellence in Leadership.

Noble Hotel of the Year

Leading the Season 2 results is UMusic Hotel Madrid in Madrid, Spain, named the 2026 Season 2 Noble Hotel of the Year for Outstanding Concept Hotel.

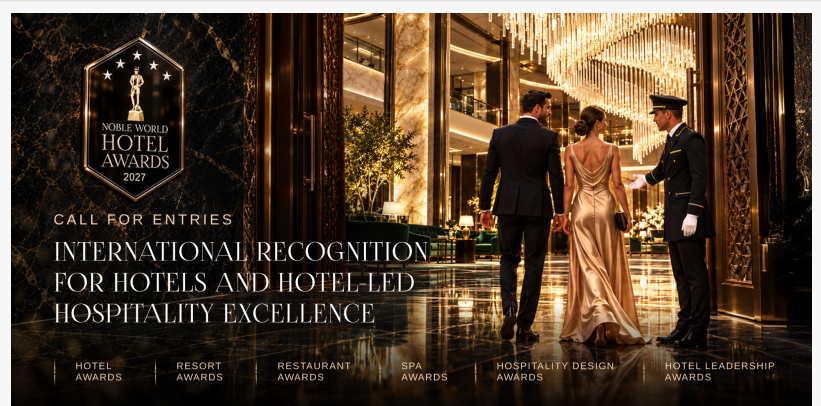

Presented to the highest-scoring property across the competition, the title recognizes UMusic Hotel Madrid for its distinctive integration of luxury hospitality, music, and cultural entertainment. Set within the historic Teatro Albéniz, the five-star property combines contemporary design, live performances, and immersive guest experiences, transforming a traditional hotel stay into a cultural destination that celebrates Madrid's artistic heritage.
