PETROCOIN® IS EVOLVING

PETROCOIN® IS EVOLVING BY CONVERTING PASSIVE ASSETS INTO PERFORMING ASSETS

HOUSTON, TX, UNITED STATES, November 5, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Houston-based PetroCoin Limited Liability Company (ERC20-PTCN, PetroCoin®) is pleased to announce it has recently begun pursuing partnerships to move existing passive mineral assets toward active production. Management expects this work to begin producing results over the next several quarters.

With the onset of passive mineral assets converting to productive mineral assets, PetroCoin will begin an initiation of a cash distribution program for its token holders in year 2027. As the cash distribution program is laid out and constructed more details will be made available.

Kürt Neübauer, Co-Founder and Chief Executive of PetroCoin® stated, “The relationships which have been forged over the past several years are beginning to show fruit by changing the status of a number of our asset holdings into revenue streams.” Mr. Neubauer continued by saying, “As more and more projects mature and become a candidate for conversion from passive to performing assets, our token’s value will surely continue to gain stronger value.” Mr. Neubauer concluded by saying, “The importance of converting passive assets into working assets transforms idle value into active cash flow that builds long-term wealth. This is why conversion matters. PetroCoin is evolving and the conversion from idle assets into performing assets will prepare the way for future cash distributions to its token holders.”

About PetroCoin Limited Liability Company
PetroCoin Limited Liability Company’s PetroCoin® is a global innovator in diversified investments and a groundbreaking business in acquisition and development of hard assets within the energy, high conductive, rare-earth metals and precious metal markets. In times of economic uncertainty, bond yields skyrocket but when bonds sell off alongside stocks, there is nowhere for traditional investments to find cover. Cash and hard assets become king and when cash finally inflates away buying power only hard assets remain and become the only safe place to grow wealth. By exchanging PetroCoin® assets for energy assets, high conductive metal assets, rare earth metal assets and precious metal assets the PetroCoin® token is never tied directly to any particular asset but carries the value of the combination of assets it holds.
